

COURSE TITLE: PSYCHOLOGY OF HUMOR

LECTURER: Filip Sulejmanov

MINIMAL NUMBER OF STUDENTS: 4 ECTS CREDITS: 3

ABOUT THE COURSE:

This course will introduce theoretical and empirical approaches to psychological understanding of humor. The course will cover psychological theories of humor, cognitive, developmental and social aspects of humor, individual differences, and the relation of humor with well-being. Applications in education and the workplace will also be considered.

COURSE STRUCTURE:

1. Introduction to Psychology of humor
2. Theories of humor
3. Cognitive psychology of humor
4. Developmental aspects of humor
5. Social psychological aspects of humor
6. Personality approaches to the sense of humor
7. Humor and well-being
8. Applications of humor
9. Student presentations
10. Student presentations

To complete the course:

Attendance of lectures; engaging in discussion;

Written exam;

Seminar work (presentation on a chosen topic)